VISION

Kingston Heath Primary School has a focus on learning through Inquiry, which is embedded in a culture of collaboration and has a strong focus on results. Learning becomes engaging, relevant, challenging and significant when students ask questions and become involved in their own education.

MISSION

Kingston Heath Primary School's mission is to provide a quality learning environment that gives students, staff and the community confidence to strive for excellence as "active members of a global village".

VALUES

At Kingston Heath Primary School, our values are based on the International Baccalaureate Learner Profiles.

As learners at Kingston Heath Primary School, we strive to be:

Inquirers: Curious! We learn the skills to find out things for ourselves. We like to learn.

Knowledgeable: We explore concepts and ideas that are important to us and to the whole world. We learn lots of things in lots of areas.

Thinkers: We think for ourselves to make decisions and to be creative when solving problems.

Communicators: We understand and express ideas and information confidently, creatively, and in more than one language. We work well with others.

Open-Minded: We understand our own culture and history, and are willing to learn from others who are different. We listen to different points of view and learn from them.

Caring: We are kind and respectful and try not to hurt others' feelings. We try to make a positive difference in other people's lives and in the world.

Risk Takers: We think about new things and then bravely try them out. We stand up for what we believe.

Balanced: We understand that we need to use our bodies, brains and feelings.

Reflective: We think about what we have learnt and done. We know what we are good at and what we need to get better at.
